You should upgrade your GTA V to GTA 5. Just download the files from REDORACULTFANS/UPDAT-REPACK/PCM-REPACK-1-5. GTA 5 has a ton of fixes and updates REDORACULTFANS/UPDAT-REPACK/PCM-REPACK-1-5 Today I wanted to share with you my next REDORACULTFANS update! This time is all about PCM Audio files (files that make sounds). I cannot guarantee that the aramc files will be fixed since they were all made using some mods that have been removed by REDORACULTFANS. You can switch and see what other options you have in this update (war zones will not be fixed, and I cannot figure out what aramc file to fix, possibly all of them). A new kind of bug exists, i.e. one where the game freezes during gameplay. This doesn't happen all the time, but occasionally, when I load in a mission, it just freezes. I've been troubleshooting this bug for a long time and I have no idea what could be causing it, but I'm going to attempt a workaround for those of you who have experienced this bug in the past. I'm hoping to fix the situation by keeping the game paused longer, but in the meantime, here's what you should do: Did you ever catch on when a drunk client fell and died while the session was already running? In other words, did you encounter the situation where you tried to save the client and the game crashes out? I have, and I've recently found out that the game is very sensitive to it. Avoid asking your drunk client to save the game if you know there will be a crash. If you're going to be playing with a heavy load, for example while waiting for a plane to take off, saving a game right before the flight can cause the game to freeze, either while waiting for a save or while waiting for the mission to continue. To avoid this, simply avoid saving and loading games while you are waiting for your mission to start. I have also faced several crashes of the game due to bugs in the PCM files. Check the full list here. I know it's a lot, but I did my best and I haven't double-checked everything. I'll fix all the ones that I find, but the only way to do that is to wait for people to report that the
