Main themes of Ejay In the game, in which the player plays the role of the main character which is from the mountainous. In order to get to the end of the game, a player must meet two goals. The first is to survive from the various dangerous elements of the environment. Secondly, they must find clothes and the fastest. As a player, you have to pass the game's race track to reach the end. This race track is 20 km long. There are 13 checkpoints in the game along the route. The players are transported to the race track only by the bus. After finishing the race track, you will be transported to the next checkpoint. All cars have speed elements. If the player hits a truck, he will be thrown off the road. In the game, there are two kinds of trucks. Nowadays, the number of trucks in the race is limited only to 16 trucks. There are two kinds of trucks: normal and jumbo. Jumbo trucks are worth more. But the player must not forget that in the pursuit of the goal, if there is a truck in the road, the player will crash. The taxi cabs have no speed or crash effects. This is also the second type of trucks in this game. While the truckers usually carry passengers, sometimes they carry loot from the player. The tasks assigned to the player have different points. Also, the amount of points needed to fill a point is different. If you have finished the task assigned to you, you will be given an extra point. If you do not fill it, the point will be deducted from your total point. The game is not limited to the amount of points that are assigned to you. The player will have to look for clothes and fast during the game. They all are hidden in the environment that are traps. At the end of the game, the player will come across a score of points.
