Please enable Javascript to watch this video (CNN) - The New Delhi mall shooting that's left a 19-year-old girl dead and eight other people injured, including a woman in her 40s, has left authorities in India worried - as well as for the safety of the remaining diners and shoppers attending Sunday's Christmas dinner. "It's a nightmare for everyone," said Arnab Mondal, a businessman who had been to the mall to shop when he heard gunshots echo through the large shopping center. New Delhi police chief BS Bassi said on Monday that mall security guards yelled at the man suspected of shooting, and the suspect fired three shots. Two bullet casings, unloaded weapons and his shoes were recovered at the scene, police said. As many as 20 people were inside the mall when they were attacked. They ranged in age from 23 to 80, according to police, who identified one of the dead, a 19-year-old, as the son of Delhi's top cop, DGP Backs Basi. Authorities then asked all shops and eateries to be closed down but many local shops were shuttered around the area. The shooter, who also died Sunday, was identified as Ashok Kumar, a 35-year-old security guard, and his wife Shoba Kumari, 33, was among the eight who were injured, police said. Nine of the injured have been released from a hospital while others are recuperating. Police said they were checking Kumar's phone records and speaking to his colleagues to confirm the allegations that he was involved with the shooting, and the investigation was underway into whether Kumar was out of work at the time or had taken a day off. City's top cop worried Police chie
